Monday, October 30, Unalaska, Alaska:

The City of Unalaska is pleased to announce that the Unalaska Public Library will sell a limited number of metal donor plaques to display on two artwork panels in the library entryway. The metal panels and plaques have been designed by Cat Cramer, the metal artist who created the metal windscreen in front of the library.

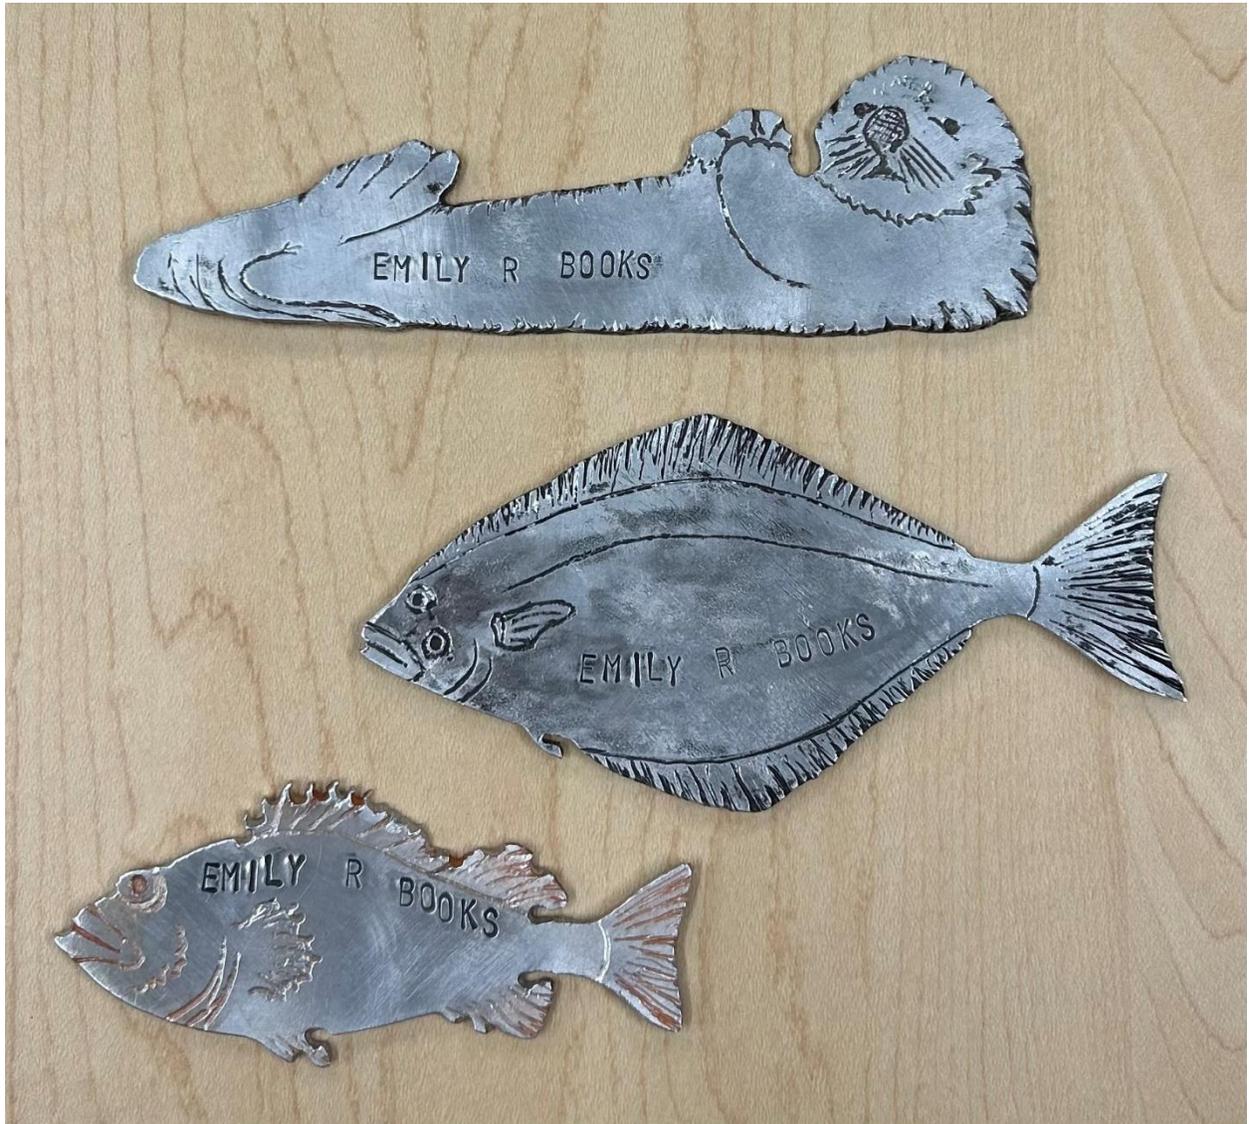

These plaques will display the names of donors and will cost $200 each. Plaques come in the following shapes:

- Halibut
- Otter
- Puffin, standing
- Puffin, swimming
- Raven
- Rockfish

We will sell a limited number of each shape, so contact us early for the best selection! Donors may purchase plaques from October 30 – December 1. We anticipate installing the panels and donor plaques in Spring 2024.

Sample plaques may be viewed at the Unalaska Public Library. Please contact the library for more information about this opportunity, including character limits and payment options.
