CAMP ADGAYUX

If your child is too young for Camp Qungaayux, come join Camp Adgayux! Adgayux is the Unungax word for little pink salmon. As the local salmon are hatching and growing, your children will have the opportunity to grow in their knowledge of Unalaska's indigenous people. Children will learn about Unungax values, traditional arts, storytelling, and songs. They will explore outside and learn about the plant life of the island: what is edible, what is dangerous and what can be used medicinally. This is a wonderful opportunity to help your children connect to and understand the amazing native culture and history of Unalaska! Minimum/Maximum: 10/20

FEATURED ARTIST

Eliana Athayde is a bassist, singer, and composer living in Los Angeles, California. She is originally from the San Francisco Bay Area and moved to LA to study classical and jazz bass at the University of Southern California. Over the past decade, Eliana has built a career as a recording and touring bassist. She's worked with a diverse range of artists, including Jon Batiste, Vanessa Paradis, Weyes Blood, Tim Heidecker Pomplamoose, and Waxahatchee. Her original project, Jacaranda, released their first EP "Telling Bees" this year. When Eliana isn't touring, she loves to teach. She's proud to have been on faculty at Soundwall Rock Music Camp, the Lafayette Summer Music Jazz Workshop, the Renaissance Arts Academy of Los Angeles, and the Sitka Jazz Festival.

Did you know that the library offers these services, in addition to books, movies, and programming for all ages?

- Free eBook borrowing
- Free wifi and computer use
- Free public notary (please note we can not notarize mortgage documents)
- Voter registration
- United States Passport application assistance and acceptance
- Passport photos
- Exam proctoring
- Government forms, such as PFD and IRS forms
- Public printing, copying, and fax (see City Schedule of Fees & Services for costs)

For one-on-one help with borrowing eBooks, call the library at 581-5060 to set up an appointment.

LIBRARY EXPANSION

The library is under construction in 2022! We will soon have an expanded space with a larger children’s room, large gathering/program space, new study rooms, a separate teen space, fireplace, and increased seating.

During construction, we will be open for regular library hours in our temporary location at Burma Road Chapel, 28 East Broadway. We have limited collections and seating in this temporary space, but patrons have access to all of our other services while we are here.

We estimate that construction will be complete on the expanded library in Spring 2023. We thank everyone in the Unalaska community for your patience and support during this exciting time!
